

ANNUAL ILLINOIS COLORECTAL ROUNDTABLE MEETING – 2021

Join the University of Chicago Medicine's Center for Asian Health Equity and Comprehensive Cancer Center and the Illinois Department of Public Health along with stakeholders throughout the state of Illinois for the Annual Illinois Colorectal Cancer Roundtable virtual meeting.

Audience: primary care providers, nurses, patient navigators, care coordinators, community health center staff, public health professionals, local health departments, community groups and cancer survivor groups.

Colorectal cancer (CRC) is the second leading cause of cancer death in the US and incidence of CRC in Illinois is higher than the National average. Significant disparities exist by race/ethnicity, access to services, socioeconomic status and geographic location. The COVID-19 pandemic has had a detrimental effect on cancer screenings. It is imperative to understand the disparities, its determinants and identify solutions to address CRC disparities across our State.

DATE AND TIME:

Wednesday June 30th, 2021
10AM- 2PM (CT)

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Illinois Colorectal Cancer Landscape
- Persistence of CRC Disparities
- Strategies to Increase CRC screening during the COVID-19 Pandemic
- Achieving success across the CRC Continuum
- Successes and Opportunities of Statewide Initiative
- Leveraging stakeholders in addressing persistent CRC disparities
